

A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you.

Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-ful life.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten well-being of body and soul and remind me of the grace of simplicity.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

May this season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

*Lord, you have been our refuge in all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
You turn us] back to dust and say,
"Turn back, you mortals."
For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past or like a watch in the night....
So teach us to count our days,
that we may gain a wise heart.
--Psalm 90:1-4, 12*

Dear friends in Christ,

As I was lying in bed, rubbing the sleep from my eyes this morning, the first verse of Psalm 90 popped into my mind: "Lord, you have been our refuge in all generations...." I knew it was part of a psalm, but I wasn't sure which one, so I looked it up and the proceeded to read it as my morning devotion in its fuller context. As I reflected, I was delightfully surprised to find this ancient psalm speaks to so many current aspects of our life together as a congregation and my own life as an individual child of God.

Some of you won't be surprised that a Scripture passage about refuge sprang to my

Pastor Michelle Manicke

Zoar Lutheran Church, can continue to "live into" the name an earlier generation bestowed on this congregation. As a reminder, "Zoar" is the name of the hillside town Lot and his family fled to when Sodom was about to be destroyed. In the original Hebrew of the Old Testament, "Zoar" means "little place of refuge."

I suspect another reason this verse of Scripture came to mind is due to a conversation that took place yesterday afternoon at the first meeting of Zoar's Core Team for Building an Inclusive Church. (Just FYI, in spite of my broken ankle, I was able to participate in this meeting by phone. I'm grateful for the wonders of modern technology—most of the time, anyway!) So, after our Core Team had spent some time in prayer and personal reflection, we turned to the topic of beginning to frame the conversation and discernment process for the work we'll be doing as a congregation in the months ahead. The theme of Zoar as a mind! For one thing, if you read the piece I wrote for last month's newsletter, you are probably aware that the theme of refuge has been on my mind lately. Specifically, I've been wondering how we, the people God has called and gathered together as the community of

"refuge for all" surfaced, and the members of our committee agreed that becoming a refuge is an ongoing, ever-evolving, and always-expanding process. As a group, we recognized that over time Zoar Lutheran Church has been living into our calling to be a "little place of refuge." The Community Dinner, the furniture ministry, the outreach of the Sewing Circle, the hospitality we provide to the Scouts and other building users, and our new emergency warming center partnership are all examples of our congregation's heart for hospitality and our compassionate care for the ones Jesus called "the least of these."

As I write this, it's two days before Ash Wednesday, and so I'm also struck by the timeliness of Psalm 90:3, which speaks of God turning us back to dust and calling us to "turn back"—that is, to repent. The part about God turning us back to dust makes me think of the creation story of God fashioning the first human being, Adam, from the dust and breathing life into him. Reflecting on the creation story also causes me to remember that humankind has been created in the image and likeness of God, who, the Psalmist tells us, is "our refuge in all generations." So, given that God is our refuge, and given that we're created in the image and likeness of God, I think it's fair to say that being a "little refuge" for others is a big piece of our God-given identity!

With regard to how this psalm speaks to me as an individual child of God, I'd have to say it's a good reminder to put things in perspective. It's a good reminder that while God is "from everlasting to everlasting," I am not! My days are numbered; therefore, the season of Lent—that is, right now!-- is the acceptable time to ask God to help me get my own spiritual house in order. Most of all, though, as I pray this psalm, I take heart in the Good News that God has been, is, and always will be the refuge of God's children in all generations. Although we humans are often fickle, our God is always faithful, always waiting to welcome us prodigals back into God's wide embrace, which is our place of refuge.

To sum up, as I sit here nursing my broken ankle, Psalm 90 is "good medicine" because reminds me to prayerfully discern how I want to spend the remaining precious days God has entrusted to me here on this earth. Personally, I can't think of a better way to spend my days than to ask God to help me and our congregation grow into God's call to become a "little place of refuge" for others, and the forty days of Lent seem like a good time to begin practicing!

What say you, friends? Are you ready to join in the Lenten journey that calls us to turn back to God, the One who is "our refuge in all generations," the One who loves us and gives us abundant life through Jesus the Christ? Are you ready to ask for a wise heart to make your days count by reflecting God's love and by helping Zoar become a "little place of refuge" for all those outside our doors who long to know Christ and the life that is in him?

Your companion on the journey,

Pastor Michelle Manicke

Caring for Our Family

Please remember these members of Zoar who are no longer able to participate as they once did. They have been active in Zoar's community in many ways. Now, as time makes it necessary for them to slow down, they often become the prayer backbone of Zoar. Days can get long though, and a visit from you can be so uplifting. Sending a card or making a phone call can also brighten their day. (If you need an address or phone number, please call the church office.)

March LIFFT Event:

"Love God, Love Your Neighbor"

Jesus' Great Commandment to love God and love your neighbor as yourself echoes this year's LIFFT theme verse, Micah 6:8: "He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God."

Join us from 12-1:30 on Sunday, March 8th, as we reenact the story of the Greatest Commandment using Godly Play. We will also play games, sing songs about loving God and neighbor, and share a delicious lunch.

In the coming months, here are the topics:

- No April Event (Easter - April 12)
- May 3rd - Good Shepherd Sunday - Acts 2 : 42-47 - "Living it!"

Zoar's Adult Sunday School class meets from 9-10 am most Sundays. We have lively discussions, as we explore the Bible or delve into a thematic study. All are welcome to join us at any time, as most of our weekly lessons are self-contained and require no advance preparation. (Please check the calendar below to be sure we're meeting on a given Sunday!)

During the month of March, we'll be continuing our study of Matthew's gospel, which has been unceremoniously disrupted by Pastor Michelle's broken ankle! The revised schedule is as follows:

March 1	No class due to pastor's surgery
March 8	No class due to LIFFT event
March 15	Matthew, Session 6: "Where Two or Three Are Gathered in My Name" (cont.)
March 22	Matthew, Session 7:
March 29	Matthew, Session 8
Apr. 5	No class (Palm Sunday)
April 12	No class (Easter Sunday)

February flew by! We've had fun with Valentine's Day and focused on acts of kindness. Our Bible verse was "Be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you." Ephesians 4:32. We worked on sorting, number concepts, letters, sounds, sight words, and learned about being kind to each other.

Also, we are still asking for donations for the classroom. Some things we still need: Crayola tempera washable paint (all colors), construction paper (individual colors, no mixed packs), and Zip Lock Freezer Bags (both quart and gallon size). Cash donations are also much appreciated. Thank you for always supporting our preschool!

Registration for the 2020-2021 school year is OPEN. Application forms are available to download at zoarlutheran.org/preschool or they may be picked up in the church office. ## Update from Zoar's Core Team for Building an Inclusive Church

In response to the last two years of listening seasons at Zoar, the "Building an Inclusive Church" core team has gathered for the first time. The meeting was focused on getting to know each other, discussing Zoar's service in our community (including the furniture ministry, the Tuesday night dinners, sewing circle, and our new warming center), and our need to ensure we are intentionally expanding Zoar's mission of being inclusive. The meaning of the name "Zoar," which is "little place of refuge," provided a frame to discuss the listening season experiences, survey data, and our process of discernment about expanding inclusion at Zoar. Our next meeting will be held Sunday, March 15th, after worship.

Please hold these members of Zoar's Core Team and our fledgling discernment process in your prayers: Marlena Adams; Ashlie Carvajal (co-chair); Jeanna Doversberger; Eric Hinson; Lisa Hinson (co-chair); Noel Hygelund; Pam Hygelund; Mel Kubik; John Manley; Raquel Robles; Carolyn Shearer; Kyler Shearer; and Mark Shearer. (Pastor Michelle Manicke is an advisory liaison to the Core Team.)

Meals Together at the Canby Community Dinner here

Tuesdays, 5:00–6:30 pm

We serve an average of 100 meals
each week throughout the year!

We have several ways you can help:

-Help us get the word out, by mentioning the dinner to others who might be interested in attending or helping

-Volunteer - we can always use help with: dinner preparation and/or cooking, set up, serving, and cleaning up. You could help with one or many of these for any dinner we serve!

-Especially, we need your prayers and attendance at dinners. Come share a meal and visit with our guests

If you are interested or have questions, call Connie T. or contact the Church Office.

Update of Furniture Ministry 2020 Winter Hours

During the cold months of February and March, we are only working two days a month...(one Saturday and one Thursday). For the month of February, we are working with clients and taking large donations on Thursday the 13th and Saturday the 22nd. You may continue to donate items in the basket under the mailboxes. Thank you for adhering to our schedule.

In March we will use the same configuration, but I do not have those specific dates yet as a few of the volunteers have not told me their schedules. (Stay tuned!)

Please consider checking your attic space for hidden furniture pieces. We are always in need of dressers as well as clean sheets and blankets of all sizes.

Come and help us by volunteering three hours of your time. We would greatly appreciate your service. Bless you all.

Marlena Adams, and Jackie & John Kimball
